Are -said I- and -I said- interchangeable? -Said I- is pretty uncommon, or so I thought. The sentence in question looks like so: -"It's not going to be your way," ! said I.- Or it could be -"It's not going to be your way," ! I said.- Which one sounds better? (same question for "exclaimed I" vs. "I exclaimed", etc.)

word order - -Said I- vs -I said- - English Language ...

Dear Ph.D. adviser: I just finished editing my paper based on the comments from our two colleagues. Reading what they wrote felt like walking through hell (though I don't believe that hell or heaven exists). Yes, it felt that bad. It took me 2 days to get over that horrible feeling before I could focus on editing the paper. Then I asked myself why their comments made me feel so bad.
