Verse 10. - If any one cometh unto you. As in 1 John 5:9, the Greek construction (indicative with ??, not conjunctive with ??? shows that the case is stated as a fact, and not as a mere supposition. "If people of this kind come - and it is well known that they do - do not receive them or give them a welcome." It is of the utmost importance to remember that St. John is here giving a ...

Telling friends they can't bring their dog when they come to my house I just invited a friend from work and his partner over to my house over to watch Game of Thrones this weekend. He was really thrilled I asked, but they have a small pug Charlie they bring everywhere (the partner even brings Charlie to work), and I added "The thing is, I'm afraid you won't be able to bring your pug.

Children express resistance to staying with their other parent in different ways. A child under five may appear clingy, cry, scream or pretend to be ill. Older children may become withdrawn, show disinterest or just be blunt and say, 'I don't want to go'. 'After a few hours of staying at mine, my son says he wants to go home and doesn't want to stay overnight.'
