| A French woman cloaked in mystery dazzles her audience at Hotel Paris Rivoli, every Saturday night. There, she is simply known as "The Piano Lady", a former concert pianist and piano prodigy. Playing on the Steinway grand, her memories come alive in her music set, opening a time capsule of her life, before and after the war. She remembers the time she played at the Conservatory and later collaborating with Edith Piaf and Yves Montand. On the eve of the Liberation of Paris, she begs her lover not to leave her. Left alone to wrestle a grave sin, she finds a new calling, repenting her past life. Years later, a chance meeting outside the hotel unlocks her past, at the park square where she lost her great love in a historic, medieval neighborhood in the heart of the City of Light. |
