The average man on the street without a legal background has little or no knowledge about what to do or how to proceed when a loved one passes away. Some people assume that things will happen automatically through some government scheme, which is a common misconception. This book explains what happens when a person passes away, either having written a Will or intestate without a Will, and sets out clearly the procedure to follow and the stages involved before assets and property can be properly dealt with, and why it is important to set up a Will and the disadvantages if you do not have one. The book contains interesting case studies of real-life situations to illustrate the different scenarios when a person passes away with and without a Will.

Celebration of their own life or has a relative or friend of someone who is close to death, Where There's A Will There's A Wake was written by wake caterer and funeral director Karin Slade to empower people to own their end of life choices and to change the way we do funerals. Topics covered include how to establish your own clear guidelines, what your real options and rights are when it comes to death and dying, and how to plan ahead of time to organise a celebration of your own life or to help a loved one who is dying. By preparing a celebration of someone's life (or yours) in tune with their last wishes, you can help to take away pain, stress and overwhelm for your partner, parent, child, friend or whomever would be in charge of decision making for your funeral and wake. You can also save a considerable amount of money for your loved ones.

It's the worst snowstorm you can remember. The ice-covered streets are abandoned. You hear a boom in the distance, and your computer screen goes blank. Darkness. A crash and another bang from inside the house. In the hallway, your husband sits on the floor, soaked in blood. You dial 911, and all you get is a busy signal. Would you know what to do next? The Survival Doctor's Complete Handbook will teach you just what you need to know to take care of yourself and your loved ones in the event you aren't able to get professional medical help right away.

year later she entered the race again - and won. Where There's a Will takes us into Emily Chappell's race, grinding up mountain passes and charging down the other side; snatching twenty minutes' sleep on the outskirts of a village before jumping back on the bike to surge ahead for another day; feeding in bursts and navigating on the go. We experience the crippling self-doubt of the ultra distance racer, the confusing intensity of winning and the desperation of losing a dear friend who understood all of this.
